Dining with friends is an integral part of the college experience. Whether it’s a quick bite on the go or a casual sit-down meal with friends, a meal plan is an effortless way to refuel and reconnect. With a meal plan, students can secure spending so there’s no need to worry about carrying cash on campus. Our affordable plans include All-You-Care-to-Eat (AYCE) meals and the flexibility of a-la-carte purchasing using Maroon and Gold Dollars (M&G).

Meal plans are required for all freshmen living on campus. For more information about Sun Devil Dining, hours of service, locations and menus, visit sundevildining.com or call 480.727.DINE (3463).

Roommate Requests
Roommate requests are considered for students living in the same residential college. To make a request, the student and requested roommate must indicate the other as his/her roommate choice including name, ASU ID number with same hall/residential college preferences.

Roommate requests are subject to space availability and are not guaranteed.

Schedule of Charges and Deadlines living on campus – a total ASU experience

Living on-campus is an essential part of the Sun Devil experience. Arizona State University is committed to ensuring the academic and personal success of each student and expects all first-time freshmen to live on campus in their residential college.

Academic resources, programs and events are designed for residential students’ academic interests, and personal growth and development. From in-hall study groups to recreational sports and late night programs, it’s easier to take full advantage of all that ASU has to offer.

residential college community

Freshmen live in Residential Colleges, comprehensive living and learning communities which allow students to live with others who share the same academic discipline. The Residential Colleges bridge the academic and co-curricular experience by connecting faculty and students inside and outside of the classroom.

safe and supportive environment

Residential College staff play a vital role in developing and maintaining an atmosphere that promotes academic and personal success. Staff includes professional live-in community directors, academic college staff, student community assistants and peer mentors who support residents with their transition to university life.

Safe and secure environments are an important aspect of campus living. Security features include professional staff accessible 24 hours a day, regular security patrols of all residential communities, and crime prevention and safety programs for residents. In addition, ASU offers a safety escort service for students walking on campus after-hours and a text messaging alert system that provides timely information about campus emergencies.

downtown phoenix

Taylor Place at the Downtown Phoenix campus offers freshmen and upper-class residents a modern living and learning experience woven into the heart of downtown Phoenix. Taylor Place residential complex is anchored by two 12-story buildings and features an on-site dining facility, student meeting space, retail stores, an outdoor patio garden and Devil’s Den, a gaming and recreation space for residents. A private roof terrace for students overlooks the 4,000 square foot public shade garden, which includes seating and a water feature.

On the Tempe campus, Residential Colleges are configured in twelve unique residential facilities located throughout campus. Amenities including computer labs, study lounges, community kitchens, laundry facilities, volleyball courts, barbeque grills and landscaped courtyards are designed to promote and support academic and personal success, student engagement and recreation. An all-you-care-to-eat (AYCE) dining facility is located near each Residential College.

polytechnic

Century Hall, home to freshmen at the Polytechnic campus, fosters a comprehensive experience that combines community activities with enhanced academic support. The three-story residence hall features a community kitchen, study and social lounges, a “solutions” room, laundry facilities and an expansive outdoor courtyard. Dining facilities are adjacent to the residence hall and include Citrus Dining Pavilion, Mesquite Café, a campus market, and the Devils Den, a gaming and recreation space for residents.

west

West campus freshmen reside in Casa de Oro residence hall. Designed to be a hub for student life, the interdisciplinary Residential College, offers a great environment for students to gather for team projects, recreation, events and meals. Organized around a central interior courtyard, Casa de Oro features double occupancy suite-style rooms with study spaces and a community kitchen. Dining facilities are just steps away from the residence hall and include Verde Dining Pavilion, an All-You-Care-to-Eat (AYCE) dining hall, retail options and the Devils Den, a gaming and recreation space for residents.
